

Welcome

First things first ... thank you very much for purchasing this eBook.

My name is Louis Allport and welcome to Volume 4 of the exclusive video coaching series 99 Minutes To Internet Success.

And let me say that even though it's called "99 Minutes..." the total exclusive videos linked to in this eBook come to over five hours. 310 minutes to be exact.

Let's get started...

Sincerely,

Louis Allport

Some Case Studies Of People Successfully Selling Reprint Rights Products:

Auction eBooks

This site takes a whole bunch of easily available eBooks and presents them in a very interesting way.

HNB Resources

This site successfully uses an affiliate program to sell reprint rights products.

Paperless Newsletter

This site sells a higher end reprint rights product (only 20 rights were sold I believe). But by creating his own product and adding that to the offer, it helped it sell even better than the competition. A useful case study.

Info King

Here's an example of someone who very successfully sells digital info products on eBay.

If you're interested in this subject, check out "99 Minutes To Internet Success (Volume 2)". Three hours of videos all about selling info products on eBay.

It should be available from the site you got this product from. If it isn't, just do a quick search for it in Google.

Pay Per Click Resources:

Overture Search Term Suggestion Tool

The Overture Search Term Suggestion Tool is very helpful to see which key phrases are being searched for, how much they're being searched on, and related terms too.

Word Tracker

The service for keeping a very close eye on what keywords are popular, and to help you find good niches to target.

Pay-Per-Click Search Engines

A very thorough directory of pretty much all the pay-per-click search engines, with lots of useful content about the subject too.

High End Reprint Rights Products:

Reprint-Rights.com

This site has been around several years, and sells the rights to some very strong products. These products don't come cheap.

Best Reprint Rights

Paul Hartunian's site selling the rights to some very high end products.

Search Engine Info & Research:

Search Engine Watch

This site has been around several years. Lots of useful search engine content and news.

Unfair Advantage To Winning The Search Engine Wars

Planet Ocean's very in depth private site which has been around several years.

Jim World

Busy forum with lots of info on search engines.

Webmaster World

Another very busy forum. Lots of very useful news and content.

3rd Party Processors

Neil Shearing's mini site that took a day to create and pretty much only gets traffic through the search engines, yet makes him $400 a month (approx) in affiliate commissions.

Affiliate Program Resources:

Associate Programs

Allan Gardyne's very comprehensive site on affiliate programs, and profiting with affiliate programs. I strongly recommend you sign up to his very informative newsletter, which he sends out every couple of weeks.

My Affiliate Program

Very powerful service for running your affiliate program. Doesn't come cheap though.

Affiliate Tracking

This is the affiliate service I use for my membership site Reprint Rights Every Month since it works very well with recurring commissions, and accurately tracks signups that come through PayPal and through WorldPay.

Ground Break - Ultimate Affiliate

A very popular and proven affiliate management and tracking script. Needs to be installed on your server.

Easy Auto Pro

An all in one service that includes autoresponders, ad-tracking, affiliate tracking ... this may be what you're looking for to run your online business if you like to have everything in one place with one monthly price.

Marketers Choice

Powerful shopping cart service that includes pretty much everything you need including powerful affiliate tracking.

To Create Your Own eBooks:

eBook Compiler

Great software that creates self contained (.EXE) eBooks for the PC.

PDF 995

A free bit of software that can very easily convert Word documents or HTML into PDF.
